I see you sliding into my DM's
I'm sorry but no we cannot be friends

You don't even live here anymore
I ain't nothing like I was before
You're never gonna find somebody like me

You best believe me

Oh my God, oh my God
Did you think that I would never know
That you were being dirty on the low
How long did you think you were gonna hide it

I was good to you
So good for you
