A Stranger

Faye Webster

Today I might just lay around
Listen to the same song
Cry for no reason at all
Get it out of my system

You know, I used to love getting bored
But now, without you, I have so much
Time to think there's nothing to think
About anymore

I don't feel like myself right now
I feel like a stranger
I wonder who that person might be
And if you'd still love her

And today, I got upset over this song
That I heard
And I guess I was just upset because
Why didn't I think of it first

And tell me, why am I sad?
When you're somewhere I don't want to go
Even though you invited me and I still
Said no
