

Break!

Fazerdaze

A low key loser, a stranger to herself
For the moment drift into her hell
Look around her, three years wasted now
She sinks in further, dead ends multiply

Something's gotta break, something's gotta break
Something's gotta give, something's gotta give
You just give and take, I just take and give
What you gonna say, cut yourself a break
(There's no way)

You can talk, I'm not listening
I'm too tired, are you busy?
Yeah you are inundated
Yes you are evidently
It's alright, it's okay
We can talk in a minute
If in doubt pray to god
It's a shame no one's listening

Something gotta give, something's gotta give
Something's gotta change, something's gotta change
You just try to live, you just try to live
Well, I'm just gonna break, I'm just gonna break

I'm just gonna break, break
I'm just gonna break
Break, break
I'm just gonna break
Break, break (Don't you know me)
I'm just gonna break (It's gonna be okay)
Break, break (Just gonna be okay)

I didn't mean it or did I mean it
I think I might have said it, but wasn't meaning to say it
Said I'm sorry, I didn't mean it to bother
I need some water and to meditate in a corner

I think I'm gonna break, think I'm gonna break
Got nothing more to give, nothing more to say
The harder that I tried, the more it took away
So when you gonna say cut yourself a break?
(I am not okay)

You can talk, I'm not listening
I'm too tired, are you busy?
Yeah you are inundated
Yes you are, everyone is
It's alright, it's okay
We can talk in a minute
If in doubt pray to god
It's a shame no one's listening

Something's gotta give, something's gotta give
Something's gotta change, something's gotta change
You just try to live, you just try to live

I'm just gonna break

I'm just gonna break break, break (Don't you know me)

I'm just gonna break
