Man, I can't believe a lotta shit
I lost my homie to the street
He used to spend his last on a box of bullets
He ain't give a fuck about no sneaks
Ever since I lost my bro BT
My soul been feelin' so weak
I used to see his face every fuckin' day
Now it's only pics I see
And it feels so crazy
Man, shit just don't feel the same no more
I feel like I'm all alone now
Cause me and my homie can't hang no more
So sometimes I sit back and think "why that shit happen"
But then I thought about it
Bro was all about action
Hittin' cuts on the drive just to do a lotta clappin'
