

I'm Fine Today

Fear Before The March Of Flames

Floating in the ocean we were drifting all alone he was looking to the sky for help
I was looking for the shore he gave no apology as sharks came circling in
the answer must be here,
just relax now don't look back you'll only make things
worse,

the answer must be here
the answer must be here

Crawling on the water just because he couldn't swim
I don't know how I got here but I'm glad I came Who do you answer to?
Who do you answer to?

He turned the water into wine
We drank the ocean dry
He asked me for a cigarette
He turned the water into wine
We drank the ocean dry
He asked me for a cigarette, like any other guy

You can't smoke your just a baby
It'll make you sick, keep you from breathing
You cant swim your just a baby
Splashing on the surface, sinking in the deep end
You cant drink your just a baby
It will make you sick, keep you from growing

He turned the water into wine
We drank the ocean dry
He asked for a cigarette like any other guy

HE SAID, it's almost as I've done this before...
WALKING all the way back home we pass..
DEAD FISH carcasses with awful stench..
I DON'T know how I got here but I'm content...
TO KEEP YOU, away from making bad decisions..
AFTER all you're just a baby Jesus,
CONTENT, our lives aren't what we thought they'd be..
I'm fine today
