

Tycho

Fear Before The March Of Flames

I can see beyond today
There are no guarantees
No refunds
All is withering away
The mistakes that we make everyday

The monsters are back in our lives
I couldn't find a single thing that I liked Spinning circles in my mind
Topic of conversation
There were people staring Loss of patience
Trying to work out our destiny

I suppose if this is all (I suppose if this is all) Then we dare (then what have we to lose my friend?)
all around we pray to love (all around we pray to love
)
You hear prays we hear (if that could bring you from the start)

I swear I lost my mind a long time ago
I know a lot less than I think I do I do

You should be living than wasting yourself you have to want it deep down we're not invincible

Everything in wanting more than you are willing to give back Everything in wanting more than you deserve in return Everything in wanting more than you are

You should be living!
Living, breathing, growing, I've been learning to love
Living, breathing, growing, I've been learning to love, like them

Everything in wanting more than
you are willing to give back
(Living, breathing, growing up, and learning to love)
Everything in wanting more than
you deserve in return
(Living, breathing, growing up, and learning to love)
Everything in wanting more than you are
