violence in my head like a thorn that pierced my skin spilling strength on the floor where i stand it surrounds me, controls me shows weakness inside me

they've tried to kill me but they won't succeed!

no one no one can deny

sadness in my heart like a storm that ripped apart all the fragments of what was happiness it takes over, and numbs me shows the fear inside me

take one more shot at me and believe!

takes over and numbs me shows the fear inside me! inside! inside my head!
