

Failure

Fear My Thoughts

yes again I failed- I didn't act manly once again I failed- I showed weakness- I was hurt but still I'm human. You can't refuse your feelings you can't deny your emotions. I'm no superior being still nothing but human I'm despised because of emotions you, you wake my fear. My fear to fail lies in you once again you laugh at me because you think that I'm weak but still I'm human, every man is (even you) no superior being - still nothing but human expected to be strong you despise me because i fear yes you're taught to be strong taught to be rough- used to deny yourself how could you accept yourself if you're ashamed how can you say that you're free if you don't fully accept your self used to deny yourself
