

It's just you and me in this cage beauty and the beast in our grand parade that makes us whole and born again but nothing comes without a sacrifice no smiles without bloody cries we cannot run this out, no so we choose to fight

Let me be the sacrifice we need we both know this is how it should be we both know this must be done so please end this game my love

(el toro motherfucker!) [2x]

You say I'm crazy but I am fine it's moments like these that prove I'm right no one tells me what I can do I'm a man
I'm a bull
I'm a motherfucking beast let them see what we have become see the blood
see the pain everything they've been waiting for our crimes were a total fucking mystery that still stain our history and so we found ourselves standing here at the battlefield that some might call love

so please end this game my love my last assault is here the red curtain evades and the audience yells olé!

These words have meant something I must be more than nothing anything you say everything we were must be worth something [2x]

End this now...
