

Always Forgive

Fearless Vampire Killers

So here, ladies and gentlemen
We find a matter of contempt
You see, I wanted all the things he had
Yet even if it left him dead
So please take a moment
Cast your eyes over the scene
A brutal double homicide
But in his charms you must agree

No sign of entry
Cause of death, a mystery to all involved

I know you're waiting for me
I knew you'd always forgive
I know you're waiting for me
In a place where jealousy can't exist

Since our birth you were the first
If only minutes before me
And as you screamed and whined
Our mother breathed her last
As I broke free
Since then I suppose I've always been the cage you must protect
A lazy-eyed monstrosity
A shadow to your success

But you never hurt me
Never spurned me
Gave me all you could
Well, it's not enough

I know you're waiting for me
I knew you'd always forgive
I know you're waiting for me
In a place where jealousy can't exist

Fate dealt me blows
You can't see head bursting
Words kill him
Fate dealt me blows
You can't see head bursting
Words kill him

I find you in bed
She's with you with aid of evil
My touch is lethal
Life fading from your face
As the tragic love of sublime cadavers

I know you're waiting for me
I knew you'd always forgive
I know you're waiting for me
In a place where jealousy can't exist

I know you're waiting
I knew you'd always forgive
I know you're waiting

In a place where jealousy can't exist
