

Back from the Void

Fearless Vampire Killers

I wanna find what I have lost
And ain't it my right
To follow my soul?
To find these broken threads
Of what we were
And grip them real tight
Pull them into the light
To prove it's all worthwhile
But who am I to make you decide?

In the arms of those we love
We found a deep salvation
But somethings are never right

I'm waiting for spark to light up
I'm looking for a hope to cling to
In your eyes
I know a lie
But this it ain't that
It's real, it's a fact
I've turned back from the void

Wish I could find a way
To show you what I see ahead
And I know this ain't fair
And I know you were there through hardest times
When all I saw was darkness and fear
And I felt the end near
When despite your pain you stayed here
And held me close when nothing was clear

I'm waiting for spark to light up
I'm looking for a hope to cling to
In your eyes
I know a lie
But this it ain't that
It's real, it's a fact
I've turned back from the void

Was it just misunderstanding?
Did I drag kicking screaming
Into a life that broke you, beat you
All out of shape
Into someone you hate
That you can't be again

And I know
There's other worlds
There's other lives
We could be living in
But could we feel again
The way we felt
When it was good
In the brilliance of the night?

Waiting for spark to light up
Looking for a hope to cling to

In your eyes
I know a lie

Was it just misunderstanding?
Did I drag kicking screaming
Into a life that broke you and beat you
All out of shape
Into someone you hate

In your eyes
I know a lie
It's real, it's a fact

Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Was it just misunderstanding?
Did I drag kicking screaming
Into a life that broke you and beat you
All out of shape
Into someone you hate
Yeah yeah yeah
