

Palace In Flames

Fearless Vampire Killers

Palace in Flames,
The King is dead, The Prince remains
I will rise to rule,
The Kingdom sees a brighter day

Two days earlier,
Sipping on some wine
The Cardinal, I'm told
Is what they call a vampire

I saw her at the ball
Who is she? Who is she? Who is she?
It seems that she's controlled
By the Cardinal

The King asks for me,
I'm taken to his hall
We share a high
He tells me of his goal

Yet she still clouds my mind
Who is she? Who is she? Who is she?
Now I realise

She's the King's desire
This cannot be
What's happening to me?
This could be mutiny!

He must be crazy
Those powerful psychos will have his heart!

In his private room
The King has restrained
The girl I love
The Cardinal stands betrayed

But enter I the Prince
To kill him, this King so perverted
A candle to the ground

Palace in flames
The King is dead the Prince remains
I will rise to rule
The Kingdom sees a brighter day
