

Blame Me

Feder

Something got me paranormal
Losing my steps
Walking down this endless tunnel
I'm just trying to forget
Talk about another shot of redemption
I let you down
No making no exceptions
Backhanded back around

All I taste is fear
On the tip of my tongue
Lost inside here
I'm running nowhere
Hiding from it
Patience over
Breaking out

Now I can see why you blame me
Now I can feel what you feel
Now I know what you're faced with
And now I know this ain't real
Now I can see why you blame me, blame me, blame me
Now I can see why you blame me, blame me, blame me

Blurry kind of focus
Bad influence
Now my mind has started floating away
I'm not making sense
My pistol's fully loaded
What a turn of events
Now I'm acting like my head's exploded, fizzy soda
Falling off the fence

All I taste is fear
On the tip of my tongue
(On the tip of my tongue)
Lost inside here
I'm running nowhere
Hiding from it
Patience over
Breaking out

Now I can see why you blame me
Now I can feel what you feel
Now I know what you're faced with
And now I know this ain't real
Now I can see why you blame me, blame me, blame me
Now I can see why you blame me, blame me, blame me
