

Remember Your Name

Feder

Where do we go, what do we live for
We're living too fast, we're dying too young
Show me your road hasn't been tainted
Tell me a lie that hasn't been told

I keep trying
I can't remember your name
I keep trying
But I can't remember your name
I keep trying
I can't remember your name
I keep trying
I can't remember your name

Keep trying
Can't remember your name (keep trying)
Keep trying
I can't remember your name
Keep trying
Can't remember your name
Keep trying
I can't remember your name

How to believe when all is broken
How to be brave when all is dying
Sing me a song, whisper me something
Something I love be going on
Something I love be going on

Keep trying
Can't remember your name
Keep trying
I can't remember your name
Keep trying
Can't remember your name
Keep trying
I can't remember your name

Keep trying
Can't remember your name (keep trying)
Keep trying
I can't remember your name
Keep trying
Can't remember your name
Keep trying
I can't remember your name

I'm walking a road hard to define
Too many ways to travel
Reception is the only thing
That is holding me up strong

I keep trying
I keep trying
But I can't remember your name (I keep on trying)
I keep trying

I can't remember your name (only)
(Came stronger and the lover gonna think)

Keep trying
I can't remember your name (keep trying)
Keep trying
Keep trying
Keep trying

Keep trying
I can't remember your name (keep trying)
Keep trying
Keep trying
Keep trying
