Burn the Bridges

Fool yourself, it's not a trend You're a lover, you're not a friend You bring new life to aching bones Give me strength to carry on Send the whole thing back to me Sew me up where wounds still bleed All forgotten by the way, she understands (4x)

R: 'Cause maybe I just don't believe, that you'll stay around I burn the bridges to the ground While you're still around

I can't decide, I can't pretend Bring the summer back again All forgotten by the way, she understands (2x) Complicated and intense, just the faintest circumstance All forgotten by the way, she understands (4x)

R:

Fool yourself, it's not a trend You're a lover, you're not a friend You bring new life to aching bones Give me strength to carry on Send the whole thing back to me Sew me up where wounds still bleed All forgotten by the way, she understands (4x)

R:

An' maybe I just don't believe, that you'll stay around Stay around
