

Every Minute

Feeder

It's just a state of mind
I've just been buying time
Blocking out the sun, the sun
I must confess
'Cause theres no easy way
My life has just begun
A father to a son, a son
And I must confess

It's every minute
It's every minute
Sarah
Sarah

I love the summer air
Free from a vacant stare
The way you light your dress, your dress
I must confess
I've loved you everyday
In your dramatic way
Afraid of circumstance
And I must confess

It's every minute
It's every minute
Sarah
Sarah
Sarah
Sarah

Do we say what we know
Everyday we get old
Every fall to the ground
It's so unexpected
Are we safe do we go
Make a start from below
Taking steps 'til we run
It's so unexpected

It's every minute
It's every minute
Sarah
