

Snowblind

Feeder

Fallout, breakout from your enemies
Frozen here, empty inside as you try to speak

But someone, somewhere carries the light
Opens their hearts for you

Through the fields of fire
We have traveled to the edge, the edge, the end
Can we justify, hold our hands up to defend
Hopelessly blinded...

Sail out, across the water to another world
Closer now, dropping the anchor cause we have the will

Cause someone, somewhere carries the cross
Opens their hearts for you

Through the fields of fire
We have traveled to the edge, the edge, the end
Can we justify, hold our hands up to defend
Hopelessly blinded...

Standing tall above in silence
Watching expressions turn to stone
Waiting for the storms to gather
Holding on tight till it's calm
Holding on tight till it's gone

Through the fields of fire
We have traveled to the edge, the edge, the end
Can we justify, hold our hands up to defend [Repeat]

Hopelessly blinded...
Hopelessly blinded...
Hopelessly blinded...
