Feeder

Turning over again, here for another day, Still the thoughts of a dream, fragments you cant escape, i wont let you down, wont let you down i wont let you down
victoria
lets take it from the start back to the beginning
i cant breathe when were apart without you theres, nothing without you standing out in the rain, watching the traffic slow as the light begins to fade your warmed by the city glow

i wont let you down,
lets take it from the start, back to the beginning victoria
cant breathe when were apart, without you theres, nothing witho ut you
theres nothing
theres nothing
nothing

Turning over again, healed for another day
victoria
victorious cant breathe when were apart without you theres nothing, without you.
