

Best Of Both Worlds

Feeling Left Out

I followed your break lights into the night
I kicked the curb until my foot felt right

Expectations will not be held as high
It's not the same you are not mine
Expectations will not be held as high
It's not the same you are not mine
Did you cry?
Did you mean to be so ignorant to you being true?
To enlighten it would frighten you

Your best of both worlds would collide
That one issue subsides
Enjoy the free ride
Enjoy the free ride

Hide from the sunlight
Fight for sleep tonight
With a new day comes a new light,
I'm scared to open my eyes

Expectations will not be held as high
It's not the same you are not mine
Expectations will not be held as high
It's not the same you are not mine
Did you cry?
Did you mean to be so ignorant to being true?
To enlighten it would frighten you

Your best of both worlds would collide
That one issue subsides
