

Come Undone

Feint

Succumb is the reason the time has come
Searching for answers, trying not to run
Forsaking the progress of finding a name
All boiled down we're feeling just the same

We're begging for solace, we're routing for you
To fight against the right way or truth
We're begging for solace, we're routing for you
To fight against the right way or truth
