

Fading Wind

Feint

Two strings of light
Something familiar
Do you remember the lull of the blinding light
A flash of clarity
Two became one, oh
The dawn has yet to come

But in the fading wind
I heard a thousand dreams collide
Will you make it back again?
Will you make it back again?
And in those tired eyes
I saw a thousand worlds collapse
We'll make it back again
We'll make it back

But in the fading wind
I heard a thousand dreams collide
Will you make it back again?
Will you make it back again?
And in those tired eyes
I saw a thousand worlds collapse
We'll make it back again
We'll make it back

Caught in between
I'll see you there
Can you remember the draw of the longing stare
An end of all we knew
A muffled warning
But we've come too far
Come too far

But in the fading wind
I heard a thousand dreams collide
Will you make it back again?
Will you make it back again?
And in those tired eyes
I saw a thousand worlds collapse
We'll make it back again
We'll make it back
