

Let Me Go

Feint

I see the end of the road
I'm still following to find out where it goes
I think you want me to
Hold the knife and push it through
But you won't let it show

Before I fall, I need to know
Are you still holding on? Have you lost hope?
Cause it's not fair to keep me the crumbs
With broken promises
I let you in to let me go

I let you in to let me go

I'm still with you but I feel alone
Standing in this house, it's not a home
Going through the motions, killin' time
Waiting for the reasons all this time

Before I fall, I need to know
Are you still holding on? Have you lost hope?
Cause it's not fair to keep me the crumbs
With broken promises
I let you in to let me go

I let you in to let me go

I see the end of the road
I'm still following to find out where it goes
I think you want me to
Hold the knife and push it through

I let you in to let me go
(Let you in to let me go)
(Let me go)
(Let you in to let me go)
