

Solace

Feint

I could tell within a moment you knew me well
I could see you gave me solace when I needed someone there
In the darkness, I still see you like a golden arch
Rising high above the sunset in every way you are

I know that everything's in focus now
I see it really for the first time
Today, I woke up feeling more alive
Tomorrow, everything eternalized

Everything eternalized
Everything eternalized

All the days when I am searching for some kind of sign
Now I've reached the destination, there's someone of my kind
Keep me breathing with the feeling like an alley divides
Now I'm moving through the shadows, you woke me up tonight

I know that everything's in focus now
I see it really for the first time
Today, I woke up feeling more alive
Tomorrow, everything eternalized

Everything eternalized
Everything eternalized
