The Light

Feint

[?] in a world away
Falling through another day
And I'm tied into the words that run my mind
[?] I don't need to stay
Every time I walk away
It pulls me back into the world we left behind

And I just wanted you bae
What do you want me to say
But I can't see past the light
No I can't see past the light
I just wanna feel safe
Find my way back again
But I can't see past the light
No I can't see past the light

No I can't
No I can't see past the light

No I can't
No I can't see past the light
