

Automatic

Felix Jaehn

You gotta know, I don't want your friends here
And I'm done with taking it slow, I don't see what the sense is

When wanting you is automatic
It doesn't matter what I do
Wanting you is almost tragic
I couldn't stop if I wanted to

All night, hoping that I won't be leaving without you
I spent a long time waiting to feel like I'm feeling about you
So you gotta know that I don't want your friends here
And I'm done with taking it slow, I don't see what the sense is

When wanting you is automatic
It doesn't matter what I do
Wanting you is almost tragic
I couldn't stop if I wanted to

Wanting you is automatic
It doesn't matter what I do
Wanting you is problematic
Now I'm an addict, it's all I do

I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you

I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you

You gotta know, I don't want your friends here
And I'm done with taking it slow, I don't see what the sense is

When wanting you is automatic
It doesn't matter what I do
Wanting you is almost tragic
I couldn't stop if I wanted to

Wanting you is automatic
It doesn't matter what I do
Wanting you is problematic
Now I'm an addict, it's all I do

I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you

I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
I'm automatic for you
