

Put it on myself, I put on myself, I need you
I see you, I see through, I see you
Feels like I've been to the future like
Future like it's real
It's like this life is real
Emotions too surreal
It's like, real, it's like

Duffels, duffles, got money cut in
Call me, call me, I'm only selfless
I feel it rising up on the surface
If this is nothing, why's it hurting?
I'm in my pocket now watchu work with?

Raise up your hands (Raise up your hands)
Carry me forward (Carry me forward)
(Is this my purpose? Cause I feel worthless)
All that I planned (All that I planned)
Wish it was worth more (Wish it was worth)

Wish I could fight demons
Wish I could find reason
Wish I could be clear
A behemoth in me, stealing
Like to be real but
That was not real of me when
You were out there running alley-oops and sending through to me

And that shit should work for me
My mind got some baggage it hurts to me
Might need my poison to stay up
You could be mine won't you lay up?
Divine, throw a call, half court
Bend that bitch 'til I score
Counters equipped with motors
Everything's like mmmmm v8
Count my sh... don't be late mmmmm
Need more space and room
I'll take a half, expressing my top
Stay up, stay up, stay up, stay up
If you gone wait up, wait up, wait up, wait now
