Acid Dreams

Felly

Ooh, hmm
Let's go

You look so good in a night gown girl
Freckles on your face, let me kiss each one
Fingers on your waist, let me tip-toe up your spine, yeah
You keep it low key with your natural curls
Up in outer space when I make you, uh
Déjà vu like we done this once or twice, yeah

You're beautiful
Something like these acid dreams, acid dreams
You're something I ain't used to, girl (No)
I'm gon' give you everything, everything

Pop star chick, high key boring
Takes my clothes and calls me horny (Yeah)
She plays roles, I think she corny
Get your money, girl, don't worry
Says I'm garbage, just ignores me
Wish my shit was more top 40
Wants my commas, wait for karma
Got that ass just like your mama

The way you look tonight, it's like I'm gliding on a day trip
And I feel so alive, it's like my soul just needed maintenance
'Cause the way you make me feel
Way you make me feel, oh yeah
I can't believe it's real, 'cause

You're beautiful (You're beautiful)
Something like these acid dreams, acid dreams
You're something I ain't used to, girl (No)
I'm gon' give you everything, everything (Ooh whoa)

You the one
I wanna see you when I wake up
I wanna see you when I wake up
Well, you the one
I wanna see you when I wake up
I wanna see you when I wake up (No, no, no, no)
You the one, the one
I wanna see you when I wake up
(Wanna see you when I wake up)
I wanna see you when I wake up
(I don't know if this love [?])

You're beautiful
Something like these acid dreams, acid dreams
(Something like these acid dreams, girl)
You're something I ain't used to, girl (No)
I'm gon' give you everything, everything (Oh whoa)

You the one
(You're beautiful)
I wanna see you when I wake up
(Something like these acid dreams, girl)

(I wanna see you when I wake up)
You're something I ain't used to, girl
I wanna see you when I wake up
