

All You Need

Felly

(Yo, yo)

Hey!

Make way for the best when it takes all
Changing my ways let me break off
Not fazed by the days of the fake walls
No boundaries, let's take off
I'll digress, it's priceless
Swear I'm alive but I'm lifeless
Living in my brain washed up
Taking more than before feel the pain
I still take more than I can digest
But it ain't shit, still I'm blessed
School sucks, still I'm stressed
Add that to the fact that my friend hung himself
And his dad walked into him hangin' loose by a belt
That's fucked up, still I smile
Short-ass life, make it while
Some twist the weed, Some twist the vial
But I doubt that shit gonna make you smile
So fuck you, ask why I said it cause I love you
And the breed is something that you must do
The mic is who I feel I should talk to Cause that shit don't really talk back
Hard thing cause I don't need that Cause most you kids can't see that
I really couldn't care about the feedback
But I'll leave that alone
Gonna sit with these pants 'till I'm home
This world got my heart made of stone
But I'll mask it
Go cover your thoughts in plastic
Bet it won't shine
Could really use a minute, but got no time
Thoughts deep down like roll tide
But I bounce back up yeah I pass that shit like a road sign
So I stumble on, I ride the beats
Hole is a dream still incomplete
Cause I'm not yet close where I need to be
Check the whole world, looking for some decency
Won't find it
Hard to navigate when you blinded
Stressed from the back like sirens
But I ain't gonna stop 'till the good Lord close my eyelids
And I'm ghost, I'm ghost, I'm ghost
Speak the realest shit I ever wrote

(Hold up, Hold up, Hold up, Let's go)

Time is all you need
Homie just believe
Wait a bit you'll see it's only better from here

Don't stress yourself just breathe
Put your mind at ease
Wait a bit you'll see it's only better from here

Time is all you need
Homie just believe
Wait a bit you'll see it's only better from here

Don't stress yourself just breathe
Put your mind at ease
Jus' wait a bit you'll see it's only better from here

It's only better from here
