

Mirror

Felly

You're scared of looking at the mirror
Don't know if you'll like what you see
You cry out loud, somebody hears you
And takes you under their wing

Wake up from your lullabies
Been down this road a hundred times
Oh your guess is good as mine
And baby, oh, I don't know

You found the answer on the ceiling
It flashed a wink then went away
Oh "this world don't have no secrets"
That's what they told me anyway

Wake up from your lullabies
Been down this road a hundred times
Oh your guess is good as mine
And baby, oh, I don't know
