I'ma stay home all day I'ma just get high (bounce, bounce)
She been going through some things and it crossed my mind (straight up)

Yeah yeah I be doing more then I should
I don't drop tears like a [?], I'm a blood
You don't come around over here anymore
So we just hang around till we feel something good
Let me ask you something

Is you passing up on your passion, getting mad drunk with the black lung (yeah)

All these faces, all that weight my legs shakin'
All that fame now you changin'
Expensive steak so tasteless
Mama cooking better brah I'm just saying

She been going through some things and it crossed my mind (she been going through, she been going through)

Now its late nights at hotels, ain't no label making me sell (sell)
Canada fel, up in the mountains we high as a hill
Woke up alive again that shit is real

Wonder how I'd be as a parent but today good enough for me I don't care (no)

All these faces, all that weight my legs shakin'
All that fame now you changin'

Ya can't pay for love, can't pay for love, can't pay for love no
All these faces, all that weight my legs shakin'
All that fame now you changin'
