

Still Young

Felly

Yeah, yeah
Uh, uh-uh, uh, uh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, okay

First I freaked it but I can't keep it
Still fuck my best friend, no need for secrets
Off the deep end, forget the weekend
Like it's amnesia, I'll pray to Jesus, oh God
From the boat to the Waverunner
Me and my bitch split a dose 'fore the day come up
I'm gon' get this bread with my day ones
Take a shot it's a constant celebration

Not for long, I can't stay, yeah
Switch my mind up every day, yeah
Nodding off on the plane, yeah
I say fuck it 'cause I'm still young

Still young, still young
Live fast, go dumb
Get some bread, baby, throw some
Gotta make it stretch 'fore I grow

Still young, no no
Still young

Okay, I'm different
I sold my CD since sixth grade, yeah
I cannot stop, I'm on a mission
That [?] was just a taste, yeah
I'm going out the way I came, yeah
So might as well quit the playing, yeah
Coke, white seats on the plane, yeah
No girlfriend, I'on think I'm quite the right age yet
Blue iceberg wrist, no plain Jane shit
Sheesh
I think I need some room to breathe
I want the neck, don't want no teeth
Might switch that bitch up in a week

Not for long, I can't stay, yeah
Switch my mind up every day, yeah
Nodding off on the plane, yeah
I say fuck it 'cause I'm still young

Still young, still young
Live fast, go dumb
Get some bread, baby, throw some
Gotta make it stretch 'fore I grow

Still young, no no
Still young
Yeah, go dumb
