

The Same

Felly

They don't, oh
Uh, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, uh

They don't treat everyone the same, uh
I ain't got anyone to blame, uh
I just stay humble, man I sing, uh
I just smoke dope and sip drank, uh
Thankful I could see another day

God, I need just about a couple mil for the pain
Man, I'm thirsty for the bills, for the deals, time to play
All these kids want is real, I would kill for the same
And the time's still I'll but we dancing in the rain, whatchu say, uh

They don't treat everyone the same
Girl I got my lows, I ain't no saint, uh
Even though this shirt got no stains, uh
Even though you prayin' on some brain
Imma educate loving yourself before this game, uh

'Cause I don't treat everyone the same (no, no)
I'm lyin' if I said I feel all the shit that you sayin' (uh)
If you won't keep it one-hunnit, go away
And lemme hear the music, and leave me to my space, yeah, mm-hmm

I ain't yet got too many chains (no, no)
But when you see me year-to-year, you better bring your friends
I don't smoke no backwoods, only front on paper planes
Made, made 20K before the weekend, make me sane (make me sane, uh)

They don't treat everyone the same, uh
I don't got anyone to blame, uh
I just stay humble, man I sing, uh
I just smoke dope and sip drank, uh
Thankful I could see another day, what I'm sayin' is

They don't treat everyone the same, uh
I don't got anyone to blame, and dawg
I just stay humble, man I sing, uh
I just smoke dope and sip drank, uh
Thankful I could see another day, God I need (God, I need)
