

Thinking (11:44)

Felly

Go away, go back in the pouring rain
My back against the wall, babe
And I don't like to feel this way
Can't numb the pain, not even novacane
I'm back on the road again
And it don't look so good for me, or good for you

Baby won't you tell me what you thinkin', 'cause I'll never know
And don't you run to me when you drinkin', and leave me alone
Baby won't you tell me what you thinkin'

Where to go? But I can't see down that road
Seems I've had my eyes closed this whole time
I'd like to see you in another light, have another try
Cause right now you're far from mine
You paint a picture of another life, keeps me up at night
Would you do me right? And make up your mind

Baby won't you tell me what you thinkin', 'cause I'll never know
And don't you run to me when you drinkin', and leave me alone
It's not a good look for this to sink in, but you had me girl
Yeah, maybe lonely is not such a bad thing, but I'll know for sure
Baby won't you tell me what you thinkin'
