

Like a Feather

Fences

Oh father please can we get this girl to love me?
I don't got much more time
And maybe we can luckily raise a family and then we both will die
And lowered down in fine oak, in the ground
The sweet absence of life

And every time you move
It all just falls away, like a feather
And every time you move, it all just falls away
It all just falls away

And let's rewind to the summer, when we carved our names with knives, in mid July
And on the tree it read forever: "I will love you my Mary."
Shined in the light
I laid it down by fine oak on the ground
The sweet absence of life

And every time you move
It all just falls away, like a feather
And every time you move, it all just falls away
It all just falls away

And I don't wanna be (I don't wanna be)
So down the sin to see (so down)
So I will watch you cry (so down [x3])

And every time you move
It all just falls away, like a feather
And every time you move, it all just falls away
It all just falls away
