

You're the light of my life
You wrote it last night
Then you laid next to him
My sun went dim
We stopped talkin' again
We got so distant
Now we aren't even friends
Just somethin' that ends

Austin's so blue
I'll pack your shoes
Austin's so blue
That's what he told you

You're the light of my life
So why did we fight?
You taught me to swim
Now you're swimming with him
I lost you again
My texts won't send
I could try it with pen
If my hands weren't shakin'

Austin's so blue
I'll pack your shoes
Austin's so blue
That's what he told you
