

War Kid

Fences

Doesn't matter how fucked up this divorce gets I'm as stable as broken wild horses
Someone told me that love was just a war, kid
Now I know, now I know

Tears fallin' like bombs
Fallin' like rain, fallin' like tears
This is killin' me, killin' you
Both of us shoutin', neither one hears

We can scatter and meet up when the storm ends
In the stable and wonder where the warmth went
She was only six months when we got snowed in
Now I know, now I know

Tears fallin' like bombs
Fallin' like rain, fallin' like tears
This is killin' me, killin' you
Both of us shoutin', neither one hears

I know we are guilty as hell
No innocence, I know I know too well

Tears fallin' like bombs
Fallin' like rain, fallin' like tears
This is killin' me, killin' you
Both of us shoutin', neither one hears

Doesn't matter how fucked up that this divorce gets
