

Somebody

Fenech-Soler

Cold lover circling like a bird of prey
And my heart??s the target Take your shot and walk away

All I need is a smile forever
I could be more than the face of a stranger

And nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody has to know that you care
That I'm
somebody, somebody, somebody
something more than thin air

And nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody
That I'm
somebody, somebody, somebody
something more than thin air

Like a robot
I'm frozen when you??re in my room
As your stare glides past me
I had courage but it all fell through

All I dream
Is your smile forever
I could be

somebody, somebody, somebody
something more than thin air

And nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody
somebody, somebody, somebody
something more than thin air

All I need
Is a smile forever
I could be
More than the face of a stranger, oh oh

And nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody
somebody, somebody, somebody

And nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody
