

By The Poolside

Feng Suave

We might lose this planet
So take off your sweater
Because you know that you need my coolin' down
As I'm gon' need your soothin' now, yeah

Let me lift you out your jumper, your jumper
I'll be slidin' down your underwear
When you smile like that and climb on me
You should spend the night on me

Girl, that sweater's comin' off
'Cause I know it's what you want now
('Cause I know that's what you want now)
Mine's already on the floor
'Cause I was desperate to cool down (Desperate to cool down)

Give me your wet body because you do it right
Yeah, yeah, underwater, we can't survive
We can't make love, so meet me by the poolside
Oh, oh, oh

They're gonna tell you that it's fiction (Fiction), yeah
And I'll tell you not to listen (No, no, no)
Because they don't want you believin' truth
They all gon' try deceiving you, you, you, you, you

(My love) The planet's too warm
(It's too hot) So take your jumper off
(My love) The planet's too warm
(It's too hot) So take your sweater off
(My love) The planet's too warm
(It's too hot)
