

Noche Oscura

Feng Suave

I tried everything but nothing ever satisfies me
And I feel lowest when I'm higher than a satellite
Just gonna lie down and sleep here on the ocean floor
Found shelter in a dream, in a dream

As I saw you there
And baby, go
Just go back
Where you came from
As I saw you there
And baby, go
And just go back
Where you came from

I find solace in just noticin' the stars above me
And though it's only for a moment, it's all that I need
It's all I'll need
I just wanna lie down and sleep here on the ocean floor
Found shelter in a dream, in a dream

As I saw you there
And baby, go
Just go back
Where you came from
As I saw you there
And baby, go
And just go back
Where you came from
As I saw you there
And baby, go
And just go back, oh...
Ooh...
