

Men With Broken Hearts

Ferlin Husky

You'll meet many just like me upon life's busy street With shoulders stooped and heads bowed down and eyes that stare in defeat
Or souls that live within the past where sorrow plays all parts Where living death is all that's left for men with broken heart
You have no right to be the judge to criticize and condemn Just think but for grace of God it would be you instead of him
One careless step a thoughtless deed and then the misery starts
And to those who weep death comes cheap these men with broken h earts
Oh so humble you should be when they come passing by For it's written that the greatest men never get too big to cry
Some lose faith in love and life when sorrow shoots her darts
And with hope all gone they walk alone these men with broken he arts
Now you've never walked in that man's shoes or saw things throu gh his eyes
Or stood and watched with helpless hands while the heart inside you dies
Some were proper some were kings and some were masters of arts
But in their shame they're all the same these men with broken h earts
Life sometimes can be so cruel that a heart will pray for death
God why must these living dead know pain with every breath
So help your brother along the road no matter where you start For the God that made you made them too these men with broken h earts
