

Broken

Fetty Wap

I'm broken left alone all again
I'm picking up the pieces and starting all again
I think about the love that we use to share
And I don't wanna think about it
I'm not there
I'm goneee
I'm doing my thing
I left that shit all on my way
I never need you anyway
Why'd you want me all today
I'm broken

I can't even lie that you want it back
Ima tell you one tell you two time that
And ima hit it right that in the morn
I waking up I'm feeling all the pain
And I'm gone I can't lie you got me in my mind
I think about it aye shawty than
I draw the line
I never wanna do this
I told you that got me all up in my thought and ima bring it right back like that

I don't wanna love no girl
And I don't wanna take her whole damn world
I said that shit all up on my line too
I don't wanna break the mic unless I stab it like I do and ima black belt marksman shoota with a glock in I don't know I'm stopping pull up than
I'm parking
I don't wanna love no girl
I don't wanna love that bitch no world and I don't wanna

I'm broken left alone all again
I'm picking up the pieces and starting all again

I'm doing my thing
I left that shit all on my way
