

Love

Fetty Wap

Let me be your fantasy, I know you feeling me, baby (Hm)
One hundred and ten degrees
Girl you hot now I blow up your spot now (Spot now)
Take a shot now, you know how I rock now (How I rock now)
Get you what you need and what you want, want, want
Let a nigga try me, I bet he won't, won't, won't
Call my gun B2K hit like bump, bump, bump
When you do that little thing, I'm like oh, oh, oh
We can get up and slide baby
All black, give me a ride baby
Love when you be making it 'rouse baby
I'm the one, not your man on the side baby, yeah baby

You a fan of me, I'm a fan too baby
I'm better you, like fan do baby
And I'm talking floor seats don't like the stands like ooh, ooh
You ain't never met a better man like ooh, ooh
I ain't never met another girl like you, ooh
Proud when I get another one for you, ooh
Anything when it come to you I'm down baby
Every time I look up your name I smile
This ain't temporary baby plan on sticking around
Might be gone for a while is you holding me down?
Come home I got plans too, baby
Just know I understand you, baby (Yeah)
