Yeah

Before they knew my name, I had you
Way before the house and the pool
When the lights was dim, I had you
There ain't no me without you
When I die, they gon' bury me under the city
Just make sure when I go that you're fucking with me
My baby is a shooter, got her hand on the blicky
She know I'm a legend, ain't no nigga fucking with me

Baby girl, I can say the same thing for you
Never lie to me, keep it true
You know that this life can be a zoo
Be my Bonnie, I'm your Clyde, break the rules

I know that you love me
I ain't gotta ask if you love me
'Cause you been by my side when I had nothing
And bitches hit my line and you don't judge me
You just fuck with me (Yeah, baby)
You hid my work in your crib from the feds
Girl, I love you like I love my bread
And, girl, I'm stuck with you, baby
Stuck with me, babe
Gave you all of me, baby, yeah

I could say a thousand times how you make me feel
Always tryna be your shield
Cover you from everything, babe
I could say a thousand times how I'm down for real
You know where I'm from for real
Ain't nothing to add another kill, babe
I done showed you ten times how to count a million
Fancy cars, retract the ceiling
Really got me in my feelings, baby
Now these cars ain't got no limit
I done solved the puzzle, didn't it?
Struggle, I don't know the feeling

Baby girl, I can say the same thing for you
Never lie to me, keep it true
You know that this life can be a zoo
Be my Bonnie, I'm your Clyde, break the rules

I know that you love me
I ain't gotta ask if you love me
'Cause you been by my side when I had nothing
And bitches hit my line and you don't judge me
You just fuck with me (Yeah, baby)
You hid my work in your crib from the feds (Yeah)
Girl, I love you like I love my bread
And, girl, I'm stuck with you, baby
Stuck with me, babe
Gave you all of me, baby, yeah (Yeah, baby)

Ooh, ooh

Ooh, ooh

I could say a thousand times how I'm down for real

Ain't nothing to add another kill, babe
