

Purgatory

Feuerschwanz

The Limbo is the place for the unbaptised and the pagans
Without the portal of the faith
That they embrace
Their souls will always be forsaken
For all the sinners full of lust
The second circle does them just
In the third in hail and frostbites they will fry

We're burning in the Purgatory
We are sinners, we are saints
For here in hell we are unholy
Swimming in a sea of flames
Our hearts will burn in Purgatory
Blazing blood runs through our veins
And there's no turning back
From the Purgatory!

Purgatory

The greedy roast with pope and cardinals into damnation
In the fifth the river Styx flows the wrathful through eternal tribulation
The heretics lie in the sixth, eternal flames them burning
In the seventh bloody murderers are damned

We're burning in the Purgatory
We are sinners, we are saints
For here in hell we are unholy
Swimming in a sea of flames
Our hearts will burn in Purgatory
Blazing blood runs through our veins
And there's no turning back turning back
From the Purgatory!

Abandon all hope you who enter here

Deceivers wait in Number eight, nine's for treachery
Where Lucifer awaits the Judgement Day, the Judgement Day

We're burning in the Purgatory
We are sinners, we are saints
For here in hell we are unholy
Swimming in a sea of flames
Our hearts will burn in Purgatory
Blazing blood runs through our veins
And there's no turning back, turning back
And there's no turning back, turning back
From the Purgatory!
