

AM I HERE?

FEVER 333

You are the only reason why
I still believe that I could fly away, die today
And leave this world in better hands
You are the hope that we will find a way finally

You're the reason I'm here
You make everything clear

If I'm not with you I am missing
If I'm not with you I would go to war all by myself
But you're here and I'm still breathing
But you're here
Now I know what it's like to miss things
Now I know how to fall in love when I can't love myself
But you're here, so I'm still breathing
But you're here

Your only limit is the sky
Infinite shots to take, so fire away, rely on me
I'll fire it up, you'll burn it down
I'll teach, you learn, we will survive today, defiantly

You're the reason I'm here
You make everything clear

If I'm not with you I am missing
If I'm not with you I would go to war all by myself
But you're here and I'm still breathing
But you're here
Now I know what it's like to miss things
Now I know how to fall in love when I can't love myself
But you're here and I'm still breathing
But you're here

(It's always for you and you too)
