

NEGLIGENCE

FEVER 333

I was raised in this shit
Struggle systemic
Never had a chance
Ain't that about a bitch?
Eating good on EBT
Collecting benefits
I might kill a motherfucker
Just so I could get some chips

What you snackin' on?
How can I get some?
Oh, you had some help?
Where you get that from?
It's real evident
That they don't give a shit but
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence

How you make a dollar out of ten cent
For every buck you make I get a tenth and
A life worth living getting more expensive
I'm just speaking facts so why you so defensive?
It's no wonder we miserable
Our condition is critical
But I got out alive
You know the damage ain't minimal
So of course we are cynical
Pay our debts on your principal
Stay broke and non-fixable, the cycle elliptical, tell me

What you snackin' on?
How can I get some?
Oh, you had some help?
Where you get that from?
It's real evident
That they don't give a shit but
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence

See, we ain't poor people
We just want more people
This economic war
Has made us more lethal
Than anything you ever seen on movie screens
Removed the chains but somehow we still the weakest link
So tell me this
Can I too be rich
Without robbing, stealing, and killing and shit?
That's just part of the biz

Just call it corporate
Looks like business and gang-banging ain't that different (Are they?)

We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
We doing excellent
Thanks for all the negligence
