

For something good you have to wait
It's easy to become impatient

I spent forever waiting for you
Keeping me waiting since '92
Feels like I'm winning the monopoly
And I know it's something promising
You're making me open up again
Truly you must be some anomaly

It's you
It's you
Keeping me waiting since '92
I was a mess until I met you
You
Just you
Love doesn't make any excuse
And I don't need any, any with you

With you I do not hesitate
Now I never have a reservation

I spent forever waiting for you
Keeping me waiting since '92
Feels like I'm winning the monopoly
I am so sure I've found the real thing
You're making me open up again
Truly you must be some anomaly

It's you
It's you
Keeping me waiting since '92
I was a mess until I met you
You
Just you
Love doesn't make any excuse
And I don't need any, any with you

My expectations you have met
I feel no limitations
With you I do not hesitate
Now I never have a reservation
