Fickle Friends

I really like your messages
They're so intelligent
We've been at this for too long
It's getting aggressive
Wish I could see the way you feel
But just from a distance
What are your intentions?
I'm bored of guessing

And I wanna know
If anybody could be holding you back
Is there somebody else that you think about?
I'm in the dark and I don't like that
Or how you cannot handle being face to face?
Or keep communicating but you like the space?
I'm in the dark and I don't like that

Can we just speak in real life?
Conversation I can follow
Conversation I can swallow
When I know
That we could speak in real time
Conversation in the same room
'Cause I don't wanna lose you
When I know
That we could speak in real life
(That we could speak in real life)

I wanna be alone with you
I need interaction
In this current situation
I'll never get it
Well isn't it nice to be out in the open?
Isn't it nice to just live in the moment?
You think so
But it doesn't feel right though

And I wanna know
If anybody could be holding you back
Is there somebody else that you think about?
I'm in the dark and I don't like that
Or how you cannot handle being face to face?
Or keep communicating but you like the space?
I'm in the dark and I don't like that

Can we just speak in real life?
Conversation I can follow
Conversation I can swallow
When I know
That we could speak in real time
Conversation in the same room
'Cause I don't wanna lose you
When I know
That we could speak in real life
(We could speak in real life)

It's gonna fizzle out, yeah

Ended before we started
Wait for the world to turn
Wait till the sun don't burn
'Cause you're worth holding on to

(Can we just speak in real life?)
(Conversation I can follow)
(Conversation I can swallow)
(When I know)
That we could speak in real time
Conversation in the same room
'Cause I don't wanna lose you
When I know
That we could speak in real life
(We could speak in real life)
(We could speak in real life)
(We could speak in real life)

Can we just, can we just
Can we just speak in real life?
