

Useless

Fickle Friends

Useless

Why'd you call me useless?

Boy, you're not the only one who's running in their sleep

Ruthless

Only call me ruthless

Boy, you're not the only one who's opened up to me

Wanna be there

You won't fall harder

Wanna be there

Just like your mama

Wanna be there

You caught me craving you from underneath the sheets

Two of us

I won't pay for your omissions

You are death

I won't fuel your love or addictions

Clueless

Why'd you call me clueless?

Do you know that everything you say is killing me?

Wanna be there

You won't fall harder

Wanna be there

Just like your mama

Wanna be there

You caught me craving you from underneath the sheets

Wanna be there

You cut me harder

Wanna be there

But who'd you rather

Wanna be there

So how is it you keep yourself away from me?

Two of us

I won't pay for your omissions

You are death

I won't fuel your love or addictions

Two of us

I won't pay for your omissions

You are death

I won't fuel your love or addictions

Useless

Why'd you call me useless?

Useless

I won't fuel your love or addictions
