

Panic

Fiction Factory

Conversation fading all the while
Only resting my ears
In the nation was that token smile
Words been frozen for years

I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't ever find love here
I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't even find love here

I'll go
And join the silent world
Events blinded by pain
Spite now
Has its flag unfurled
Friendship drowned by the rain

I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't ever find love here
I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't even find love here
Laughing
Crying
Reaction within Laughing
Crying
I'm sad from within

Panic burning on an empty moon
Victims blinded by smoke
Panic raging in an empty bar
Gas so thin flames could choke

I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't ever find love here
I won't ever find love anywhere
I won't even find love here
Laughing
Crying
Reaction within Laughing
Crying
I'm sad from within
Laughing
Crying
Reaction within Laughing
Crying
I'm sad from within

Friendship drowned by too much rain
Nevermore to surface
Friendship drowned by too much rain
Turn but never erase, nevermore

Oh, laughing
Crying

Reaction within Laughing
Crying
I'm sad from within
Oh, laughing
Crying
Reaction within Laughing
Crying
I'm sad from with
